STATEMENT

REGARDING HIRAM BINGHAM OPERATION, A BELMOND TRAIN, MACHU PICCHU

Operative information between January 1st and April 30th 2024

We would like to inform our passengers and tourism operators, that after receiving the notification of the concessionary of the railway that restricts the circulation of trains between Cusco and Ollantaytambo as a safety precaution, due to the start of the rain season in the region; the service operation of Hiram Bingham, A Belmond Train, between January 1st and April 30th 2024, will be the following:

- The service of our Hiram Bingham train will be operate under bimodal system, which consists of transfer by private sprinter with boarding at the Wanchaq Station to Rio Sagrado station, A Belmond Hotel, where passengers will board the train service to Machu Picchu.
- During the bimodal operation, the return transfer will be offered by exclusive sprinter from Rio Sagrado, A Belmond Hotel, to the hotels where our passengers stay, only if they are in the center of the city of Cusco.
- Passengers staying in hotels outside the center of the city of Cusco will be transfer to Plaza Nazarenas, the final destination of the itinerary.
