BELMOND HIRAM BINGHAM TRAIN ANNOUNCES NEW CULINARY EXPERIENCES

We are very pleased to announce to our passengers and tour operators that our Hiram Bingham, A Belmond Train, Machu Picchu service will feature the following experiences that have been designed for your enjoyment throughout your journey:

More lunch options on board Hiram Bingham:

Discover the new gastronomic proposal that our chef Jorge Muñoz has created for lunch on one of the most iconic trains in the world.

On the outbound journey to Machu Picchu, enjoy the new gastronomic proposal in which passengers can choose between 2 starter options, 3 main options and 2 dessert options.

After the visit to the Citadel, upon arrival at the Machu Picchu Pueblo station, our passengers will be welcomed with welcome drinks and live music, a perfect end to the visit to the Inca Citadel.

Rest and nourish your senses with the new experience 'Cocktail in the mountains'.

Cocktail in the mountains', is the new proposal that will replace our tea time, which will be served as usual after the visit to Machu Picchu at Sanctuary Lodge, A Belmond hotel, Machu Picchu. This new experience will allow our passengers to enjoy delicious canapés with jungle brow, sparkling wine and a variety of beverages.

A festive and flexible return to celebrate the great encounter with Machu Picchu:

During the return trip Machu Picchu - Cusco, our passengers will be able to choose between two meal alternatives:

1. Three-course dinner service after boarding served at 6:15 pm until 7:30 pm; and then enjoy music and cocktails in the bar car - observatory until arrival in Cusco.
2. After the departure of the train, our team will welcome passengers who wish to enjoy the on-board entertainment proposal in the observatory bar car from the beginning of the trip enjoying our signature cocktails, hot and cold snacks and a festive atmosphere until the end of the trip.
